

By-Law # 1519 ✓

A By-Law of the Town of Cardston in the Province of Alberta to provide for water restrictions on an Emergency basis and is called the Water Rationing By-Law.

Pursuant to section 5 and 7 of the Municipal Government Act, Chapter M.26.1, Statutes of Alberta 1994, with amendments in force as of September 1, 2000. The Town of Cardston, duly assembled, enacts this By-Law.

Whereas drought conditions have reduced the flow in Lee Creek,

And whereas the snow pack in the water shed supplying water to the Town's water source is well below average,

And whereas the Town is restricted in ability to draw from Lee Creek during high stream flows in Lee Creek during the Spring, due to high turbidity levels.

And whereas a continuation of the present drought condition would significantly jeopardize the domestic water available for culinary and house hold use.

Therefore be it resolved that the Town permit outside watering as per the following schedule:

House Number	Permitted Day for Watering	Other
